

Constellation Creative Website Guarantee

No business should be ever have their website held hostage by lack of access and essential information. Upon the completion of your new website, Constellation Creative will ensure you have full administrative access not only to your website content management system, but all other associated website system and programs. Additionally, we will provide a drive with the original full size photos and graphic design files used in the creation of your website.

Following are the types of logins that will be provided to your email address if applicable (gmail address required for Google access):

- * Website Content Management System (Wordpress, Drupal etc.)
- * Website Hosting Servicer Login (Bluehost, etc.)
- * Website Doman Name Registration (GoDaddy, etc.)
- * Google: Analytics, Search Console, My Business, Tag Manager
- * Social Media (YouTube, Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, Yelp, TripAdvisor, etc.)
- * Original Photo Image Files at Full Size
- * Original Graphic Files in Vector Format

With great power comes great responsibility but we trust you not to do anything to compromise your business website through this admin privileges. We are also available to help you with your website but this way you are ensured that you have access to all essential functions and data for the future.